Trainer jet crashes in Chamarajanagar

Both pilots eject safely with parachutes; Court of Inquiry ordered to ascertain cause of accident

Chamarajanagar, June 1 (SS &BCT)- Two pilots of a light-weight Indian Air Force (IAF) Kiran Jet Trainer aircraft (HAL HJT-16 Kiran) had a providential escape after ejecting themselves from their plane before it crashed and turned into a fire-ball this noon.

The incident occurred at around 12 noon at H. Mookalli in Chamarajanagar near Bhogapura village. Both the pilots (one male and another female) managed to eject and landed with the help of two parachutes.

Villagers and the Police, however, spotted the pilots lying on the ground exhausted and writhing in pain.

IAF sources and the Police said that the pilots have been identified as 50-year-old Wing Commander Tejpal, the chief trainer and 28-year-old Bhoomika, the trainee. The plane took off from Bengaluru this morning for a routine sortie.

Furniture warehouse at Chamundi foothill gutted

Mysuru, June 1 (MTY&BCT)- Tension prevailed at the foot of Chamundi Hill early this morning as a major fire broke out at a furniture godown, destroying goods worth lakhs of rupees.

Thick smoke billowing from the godown was visible as far as Vidyaranyapuram, J.P. Nagar and the residents assumed it was forest fire. Due to smoke and smell of burning furniture, residents heard peacocks and bird squawks for a long time.

Fire was first noticed between 6.30 am and 7.30 am by walkers at Sangam Furniture Warehouse owned by one Azeem. It spread fast due to highly combustible materials like thermocol, leather and cotton materials.

The Warehouse is located close to Mysuru Police Firing Range on Chamappaji Road (near Horse Park, Nazarbad). A major part of the building housed decorative items including false ceilings, wall hangings, floorings, pillars, arches, plywood materials and scaffolding.

As fire engulfed the entire godown, eye-witnesses first alerted the Warehouse staff who were fast asleep at a separate enclosure nearby. Before fire engines arrived, over 80 percent of the building and materials were destroyed.

Seven fire tenders were pressed into service and as per the fire staff, 90 percent of the items have been reduced to ashes. Fire-fighters worked tirelessly for over four hours to douse the flames.

According to employees of the Warehouse, a complaint will be filed at the jurisdictional Krishnaraja Police Station after the initial damages and probable causes are determined. As per fire-fighters, electric short-circuit is suspected to be the reason for the fire.

They, however, ruled out sabotage as the building is bound by walls on all the four sides and it would be difficult for someone to enter the compound and set fire. The actual cause of the accident is being ascertained, said fire services personnel.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The newly elected Congress Government in Karnataka has decided to stop all projects sanctioned by the previous BJP administration, pending review, and has also frozen release of payment in relation to all works. While the Government is well within its rights to review the projects, considering the serious corruption charges levelled against the BJP regime from various quarters, the diktat to stop payment may raise some eyebrows. The BJP was charged with corruption from within the ruling party also, but the new Government needs to tread cautiously as it may lend itself to criticism that the move is aimed at extracting its pound of flesh from the contractors.

The Government is a continuous process and a commitment made by it is considered a sovereign promise. As such, reneging on payments, where projects were awarded after due legal process, may shake the confidence of investors and contractors. Chief Minister Siddharamaiah has also put on hold tenders for infrastructure projects including irrigation works worth Rs. 20,000 crore approved by the Bommai Government, following complaints of irregularities. Apparently, some of the projects were cleared after the model code of conduct for the Assembly elections came into force, even though budgetary provisions were not made.

While political parties hurl charges of corruption against the Government when they are in the Opposition, they seldom order an inquiry once they come to power. For instance, the Congress rode to power in 2013 on the back of the mining scandal, but it did nothing to take the case to the logical end. Similarly, the BJP which accused the then Congress Government of many corrupt deeds, simply forgot about them when it assumed office. While the Siddharamaiah Government should not indulge in witch hunting and vindictive politics, it is nevertheless duty bound to conduct an impartial investigation as the Congress had made the BJP Government's corruption one of its main planks in the run-up to the elections. The inquiry should not end up being an eyewash. — In Deccan Herald

Gundlupet MLA's initiative worthy of emulation

Sir,

It is good to see the Gundlupet MLA Ganesh Prasad, by placing a notice board in front of his Mysuru house, saying no to garlands, bouquets, gifts etc., from the public (SOM dated May 31).

The practice, so prevalent with all politicians irrespective of party affiliation, is obscene to say the least. The culture of putting up huge cut-outs by all and sundry which is an eyesore and threatens the safety of road users should also be discouraged.

Unfortunately, the city administration always turned a blind eye to this evil practice.

It would be wonderful if the other MLAs from the District too could follow the initiative made by Ganesh Prasad. Indeed worthy of emulation. The District could then be an example for the entire State.

In addition to other promises, will the new Government also adopt minimum show off and maximum governance?

An evening with Haiku and Haibun

Mysuru, June 1- Mysuru Book Clubs-2015 had organised a book launch at The Green Hotel in Jayalakshmipuram recently.

The book on Haibun titled 'Jacarandas are a deep shade of blue' was released by Kitty Mandana and the first copies were received by Dr. Pamela Sanath and Mysuru Book Clubs-2015 Founder-Chairperson Shubha Sanjay Urs.

Kitty Mandana ably engaged Prof. Nandini Manjrekar in a conversation about the book. Prof. Nandini Manjrekar, Dean, School of Education at the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, introduced her late husband, Johannes Manjrekar's autobiographical book with a collection of his haikus.

She explained how her husband referred to himself as "Mysuru Huduga' because he spent his childhood in Mysuru and he always affectionately remembered the city and his days of growing up here.

This book, 'Jacarandas are a deep shade of blue,' compiled by Prof. Nandini Manjrekar exhibits what made Johannes Manjrekar one of the leading haibun (type of Haiku) practitioners.

She explained the Japanese tradition of Haiku poetry and its different forms. She also talked about her husband's love for nature and photography. Nandini Manjrekar has included many photographs of her husband in this book.

The talk was attended by the Book Club members, other literary enthusiasts and also the siblings of late Manjrekar, who participated by reading selected parts of the book.

This was the first introduction of Haibun to the gathering. Haibun is a prosimetric literary form that combines Haiku and prose. Though it originated in Japan, it has captured the global literary world and is an integral part of many literature forums.

GTD holds 'Dhanyata Samagama':
Reiterates commitment to serve people

Mysuru, June 1 (PM&TRR)- Chamundeshwari JD(S) MLA G.T. Devegowda (GTD) had organised a 'Dhanyata Samagama,' a mega event at Jayamma Govindegowda Kalyana Mantap at Kuvempunagar in city on May 30 to thank the voters of the Constituency for re-electing him again in the recent Assembly elections.

"I had taken up all the responsibilities in Chamundeswhwari Constituency, including that were supposed to be taken up by Grama Panchayats, to develop the Constituency as well as to ensure people's welfare. I owe my victory in the elections to Goddess Chamundeshwari and reiterate my commitment to serve the people of my Constituency," said GTD.

"Prior to elections, it was believed that I will join Congress party and myself and Siddharamaiah will fight the elections together. Even the people wanted that we should go together.

Siddaramaiah, D.K. Shivakumar and AICC General Secretary in-charge of Karnataka had also held talks with me and promised Chamundeshwari ticket for me, besides considering the name of my son Harish Gowda for Mysuru Lok Sabha seat," he added.

Taking a dig at Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Home Minister Amit Shah, Devegowda said that instead of concentrating on North Karnataka which is BJP's stronghold, they both chose to give importance to win more seats from old Mysuru region.

Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda and his son Hunsur MLA G.D. Harish Gowda being felicitated by JD(S) leaders in city on May 30.

> The 'Dhanyata Samagama' programme is being held to thank the voters and party workers of Chamundeshwari Constituency who have elected G.T. Devegowda for the third time on JD(S) ticket. Despite a strong wave in favour of the Congress party in the State, you have all blessed G.T. Devegowda. The development works carried out by G.T. Devegowda during his just one-year tenure as Minister in the Coalition Government are something which cannot be matched by anybody.
> —G.D. Harish Gowda, MLA, Hunsur Constituency.

"Earlier, BJP candidates used to get just 10,000 to 20,000 votes. But this time they have secured 50,000 votes. Despite this, BJP has managed to win just one seat out of 11 in Mysuru distric. The campaign of Modi and Amit Shah didn't help BJP but proved disastrous for the JD(S)," said Devegowda who opined that survival is more important than elimination of political rivals.

Congratulating the new Government led by Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, Devegowda said: "everyone has to accept people's verdict in a democracy. Siddharamaiah has a good concern for Chamundeshwari Constituency."

Devegowda expressed the confidence that being a good statesman, Siddharamaiah will give more grants to develop Chamundeshwari and wished that by the grace of Goddess Chamundeshwari, the new Government will implement all the 'guarantees' announced during election."

Thanking former Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, District In-charge Minister S.T. Somashekar and MP Pratap Simha for their help in getting a grant of Rs. 55 crore during the tenure of previous BJP Government for Chamundeshwari, Devegowda said that in addition, he has provided grants worth Rs. 50 crore for Hootagalli Town Muncipality under Amrut Yojane, Rs. 60 crore for Srirampura Town Panchayat and Rs. 39 crore for Rammanahalli.

"I held talks with former CM Bommai and Housing Minister V. Somanna and 2,700 housing units are being built for the poor at Mandakalli and the Hale Unduwadi drinking water project is nearing completion," explained Devegowda.

He also exhorted party workers to prepare themselves for forthcoming Zilla Panchayat and Taluk Panchayat elections to be held shortly.

Hunsur MLA and G.T. Devegowda's son G.D. Harish Gowda, former Mayor R. Lingappa and other leaders were present.

Former UoM staffer, now MLA Harishgowda vows help
Committed to do his mite for regularisation of services of temporary staff at Mysore Varsity

Mysuru, June 1 (SBD&BS)- Newly elected MLA K. Harishgowda has assured to do his mite for the regularisation of services of temporary employees of University of Mysore (UoM).

Harishgowda spoke during the felicitation ceremony of UoM Vice-Chancellor Prof. N.K. Lokanath and hundreds of retired staff of the last three years, organised by UoM Administrative Staff Members Association as part of Employees Day Celebrations at Crawford Hall here on May 30.

Quoting VC Prof. Lokanath's words, MLA Harishgowda said: "Following the retirement of permanent staff in more numbers, the pressure mounts on remaining staff. I was also a Varsity staffer once, but took voluntary retirement from services in 2009 itself. We were over 800 permanent employees then and 70 percent of my then colleagues have retired from services."

The Mysore Varsity that has 107-year-old history is popular in Asian continent. Earlier, even the districts like Chikkamagaluru, Ramanagara and Shivamogga were under the University, as even medical and technical courses were also offered. It is revered as a temple which has given degrees to lakhs of graduates and a factory that produces better citizens, said the MLA.

University of Mysore VC Prof. N.K. Lokanath being felicitated by Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji and MLA K. Harishgowda at Crawford Hall in city on May 30 as others look on.

No to pension

Recalling his association with Mysore Varsity, Harishgowda said: "I was born in the year 1972, when my father was appointed as Assistant Librarian of the Varsity. Hence, I have been the beneficiary of this Varsity since my birth. I have been the pensioner of the Varsity and will request the authorities to withdraw the facility, since I am a Legislator now. But my mother remains a pensioner."

UoM VC praises employees

Earlier, UoM VC Prof. Lokanath said: "Despite work pressure, the employees of the Varsity are doing their best."

"There are not many permanent staff in the Varsity and on the other hand, the staff are retiring from services. Hence more pressure is on the remaining on rolls. We should work together for the progress of the University and look forward for your cooperation in the coming days too," said the VC pointing to the employees.

Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji, UoM Registrar V.R. Shylaja, Registrar (Evaluation) Prof. K.M. Bengaluru, June 1 (BS)- Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Department has collected a whopping Rs. 13.5 crore fine from 4.6 lakh ineligible BPL card holders. Ironically, 21,232 such card holders are Government employees from whom alone Rs. 11.2 crore fine was collected.

The drive to weed out ineligible card holders began in Feb. 2022 and the data of such beneficiaries are being collected from various Departments including Transport Department on the basis of their Aadhaar number, as per the report of Additional Director (Vigilance and Public Distribution) Jnanendra Kumar.

It is learnt that, 12,583 BPL beneficiaries had top end cars, while 2.9 lakh farmers owning more than three hectares of land also were enjoying the benefit and 2,679 among them have been traced by Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs Department. Those 50,000 BPL card holders whose annual income was more than 1.2 lakh were identified through the data available with Income Tax (IT) Department.

To a question, whether it is enough just to let go the Government employees by imposing penalty, the Officer has said: "In the case of first time, the erring Officers have been pardoned, after imposing a hefty fine amount. Among 21,232 such BPL card holders, 17,521 have converted to Above Poverty Line (APL) card."

While fixing the penalty amount, even the financial status of card holders have been taken into consideration. While hefty fine will be imposed on Government employees and staff, as mentioned in the report.

Trainer jet crashes

Soon after the incident, the IAF tweeted: "A Kiran trainer aircraft of the IAF crashed near Chamarajanagar, Karnataka today, while on a routine training sortie. Both aircrew ejected safely. A Court of Inquiry has been ordered to ascertain the cause of the accident."

The HAL HJT-16 Kiran is an Indian two-seat Intermediate Jet-powered Trainer Aircraft designed and manufactured by Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (HAL) for training purposes.

According to villagers, they heard a loud blast in the air and saw the plane plummeting towards the ground. Meanwhile, the pilots managed to eject and land with their parachutes. The impact of the crash was such that the plane crashed three to four kilometres away from the place where the pilots had landed.

The plane split into two and while the cockpit and the steering gear of the aircraft were found at Mookalli, the rest of the plane's smoking debris were found at Bhogapura village burial ground. Villagers and the Police said that Wing Commander Tejpal and Bhoomika have sustained injuries.

The incident occurred under the jurisdiction of Chamarajanagar Rural Police Station and rescue teams reached the spot from Bengaluru within an hour. Three to four IAF choppers landed at the crash site and near the place where the pilots had landed and one of the choppers air-lifted the injured pilots to Bengaluru.

A team of engineers and experts from HAL and IAF are looking for clues at the crash site and are in the process of retrieving the Flight Data Recorder, commonly called the Black Box, to ascertain the real cause of the accident. The Black Box is an instrument that records all the activities of the aeroplane during its flight.

Hundreds of villagers gathered at the spot to see the wreckages and the Police were having a tough time in controlling the crowd.

Eyewitness account

We heard a loud sound up in the air and saw the plane plummeting to the ground. We also saw two pilots ejecting from the plane with their parachutes. We rushed to the spot and the plane was burning and there was none. Later, we found the pilots three to four kilometres away. Me and my friend Chandru then called the Police and the press."

DECODING MYTHOLOGY

Dr. Devdutt Pattanaik - Author, Speaker, Illustrator, Mythologist

Swallowing Gods

In Hindu mythology, during the battle between the devas and asuras, the guru of the asuras, Shukracharya, is about to use Sanjeevini Vidya to resurrect all dead asuras. To prevent this from happening, the gods beg Shiva to help. Shiva swallows Shukracharya and keeps him in his body. But Shukracharya manages to escape in the form of semen. This is why "shukra" means semen.

In another story, the asuras kill Kacha, the son of Indra, and get Shukracharya to eat him. But Shukracharya's daughter is in love with Kacha. She begs her father to bring him back to life by regurgitating him. Shukracharya does not know how to do this. So he comes up with another idea. He teaches Kacha who is in his body the secret of Sanjeevini Vidya. Then Shukracharya's body is cut open and Kacha is pulled out. Kacha then resurrects his teacher, Shukracharya.

In another folk tale, we are told how Kalidas sees the goddess Saraswati and is so impressed by her beauty that he starts describing her. But he describes her from head to toe, and this is seen as disrespect which is why the goddess who gets angry, takes the form of the terrifying Kali, and swallows him. He apologises from within her stomach for his mistake and starts describing her from toe to head. Pleased by this new narration, the goddess spits him out, which is why he is called the servant of Kali.

Then there are stories where the endings are not so happy. For example, we hear how the asura Atapi would turn his brother Vatapi into a goat, cook his meat and offer them to guests. When the guests had eaten this meat, he would get his brother to turn back and rip his way out of their stomachs. That would naturally kill the guests. But, when the goat meat was offered to Agastya Muni, he digested Vatapi before he could turn back. Agastya is famous for his digestive powers. He is supposed to have swallowed the entire ocean and revealed the asuras who were hiding under the sea.

In the folk Ramayana, in Tamil Nadu, we learn of a fight between Surpanakha and her sister-in-law, Mandodari. Enraged by this fight, Surpanakha's husband swallows Mandodari's husband, Ravana. Ravana begs his sister, Surpanakha, to pull him out, but the only way to do so is by killing her own husband. Ravana tells Surpanakha that if she does this, he will declare her son as his heir. Greedy for the throne, Surpanakha cuts open the husband's belly and releases Ravana. But then Ravana goes back on his promise and refuses to make her son his heir. This makes Surpanakha furious, which is why she procures the help of Ram to destroy Ravana.

In a Rajasthani folk Ramayana, it is said that, at the time of their first meeting, Hanuman swallows Lakshman, when Lakshman eats a mango from a tree without his permission. Ram apologises on Lakshman's behalf, and Hanuman is appeased enough to regurgitate Lakshman.

WORD OF THE DAY

Nemesis

Pronunciation: NEM-uh-siss.
Meaning: A nemesis is a formidable foe—an opponent or enemy who is very difficult to defeat. As a proper noun, Nemesis refers to the Greek goddess of vengeance.
Origin: Nemesis was the Greek goddess of vengeance, a deity who doled out rewards for noble acts and punishment for evil ones. The Greeks believed that Nemesis didn't always punish an offender immediately but might wait generations to avenge a crime. In English, nemesis originally referred to someone who brought a just retribution, but nowadays people are more likely to see simple animosity rather than justice in the actions of a nemesis (consider the motivations of Batman's perennial foe the Joker, for example).
Example: "2020's original Enola Holmes proved to be a surprisingly enjoyable twist on the world's most famous detective [Sherlock Holmes], focusing instead on his overlooked sister, Enola. No surprise, then, that this follow-up is just as exciting a romp through Victorian London. Despite proving her skills in the first film, Enola struggles to establish her own detective credentials until a missing-person report leads her to a case that's stumped even Sherlock, and sees her crossing paths with his arch nemesis, Moriarty." — Matt Kamen

THE ODD WORD

Naskin

Prison.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

New kid on the block

Meaning: When you say that someone is the 'New kid on the block' you mean that they are a new arrival to the area or to the social group.
Origin: The phrase 'New kid on the block' originated in the US and was first seen in print in a "Skippy " cartoon by Percy Crosby: "The new kid on the block told me that the next time he saw you he was goin' to twist your nose."
Example: "Jeff's the new kid on the block; he doesn't know all the rules yet."

As Mysuru city is growing rapidly, there is an overwhelming demand for STAR OF MYSORE. But there are complaints that the paper is not reaching the readers in time in areas of city outskirts and also not available. At the same time it's a matter of delight, that a good number of our readers in the outskirts of our city, beyond the ring road, are getting their copy of STAR OF MYSORE next day along with their morning dailies.

Therefore, those wishing to have STAR OF MYSORE the next morning along with their regular morning newspaper (Kannada or English) may ask the paper boy who delivers the morning paper to deliver STAR OF MYSORE also.

The readers can also contact our Circulation Manager T.S. Gopinath - 9845296447 or Circulation Assistant K.S. Prasad - 9900382840 for getting their copy under this arrangement.
